Hamburg, Dec. 4. The Advices we had received from Pomerania, of General Romanzow's Retreat, are now contradicted; and we are assured, that the Russians made themselves Masters, on the 15th past, of a small Fort called Munde, situated at a Quarter of a German Mile from Colberg, at the Entrance of the River Perfante; the Loss of which, cuts off all Communication by Water between Stettin and Colberg.

The Prince of Wurtemberg has passed the River Rega, and has repulsed a Russian Corps commanded by General Berck, as far as Lepin.

From Berlin we learn, that the Inhabitants have been under very great Apprehensions at the Appearance of an Austrian Corps under General Laschi, at about seven German Miles from that Capital; but Prince Henry having detached General Bandemer in Pursuit of the Enemy, it was hoped they would again pass the Elbe.

The King of Prussia was still, the 27th of last Month, at Strehlen.

Cologne, Dec. 4. This Day the Elector of Cologne honoured Count Blankenheim with a Visit, and dined there. His Electoral Highness was received, by the Commandant and Garrison of this Town, with all the Ceremonies and Honours that are due to an Elector of the Empire. Much about the same Time arrived here the Prince of Soubize from Dusseldorf, who also dined at Count Blankenheim's. After Dinner the Elector returned to Bon; and the Prince of Soubize continued his Journey to Versailles.

Liege, Dec. 6. The Prince of Soubize arrived here incognito this Morning. He alighted at Count d'Andlau's, the French Commandant in this City, where he breakfasted, and then set out for Versailles.

We expect To-morrow the Regiment of Royal Bavaria from Ostend: They are destined to reinforce the Garrison of Wesel, which at present consists only of five Battalions.
